A Message from Sisterhood President

2020 was one for the record books and I am certain that not many of us were sorry to see it end. I know we all hope that in 2021 there will be fewer virtual meetings and more per-son to person interactions with family and friends.

It was great to see all of the Sisterhood members who participated in the Men's Club meeting in mid-December. It was a wonderful and informative program with important infor-mation about Covid and Jewish thoughts on the topic. I want to thank Herb Brass, who orga-nized the meeting, for permitting me to send out a direct notification to Sisterhood. I learned a lot during the presentation and I am sure everyone else did as well.

Look for a separate email, within the next two weeks, concerning a Sisterhood meeting in mid to late January. Sue Amster and I are in discussion regarding the topic, but I am sure the format will again be a Zoom event.

The Knitting Group has decided to take a break for a while but a notification concerning a date, time, and location when it resumes will be sent out to the membership. Information about other Sisterhood groups are elsewhere on this page.

Happy 2021 to everyone and may we all stay healthy and safe.

Book Group will discuss two non-fiction books in its upcoming Zoom meetings. On Sunday, February 14 at 10:15 a.m. the subject will be Lori Gottlieb's "Maybe You Should Talk to Someone." The book is about the author's experiences both as a psychotherapist and as a psychotherapy patient her-self. On April 11 at 10:15 a.m. the book will be "The Splendid and the Vile" by Erik Larson, about the role of Winston Churchill during WWII. If you need copies, Bobbi Handwerger is the person to contact bhandwerger@gmail.com

Grace Lehrer sends the book group Zoom link by e-mail one week before the meeting. If you miss it, Elaine Hordes enhordes@aol.com can supply you with the information.

If it's the second Monday of the month, you can rely on the Rummikub group's 4:00 p.m. monthly Zoom chat. Date: January 11, 2021. Please contact Sonia Milrod smilrod@mail.com for the Zoom meeting link.

Our GIFT SHOP remains ready to serve your needs during this period while the store remains closed. If you have questions or requests, please contact Shop Manager Pam Simowitz-Weber by calling her at 513-903-7461, rather than calling or e-mailing the shop itself.
